PEDRAM F. MAZGANI

Academic Education

Pedram F. Mazgani obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Southern California in May 1996, and obtained his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Southern California in May 1999. As an undergraduate at the University of Southern California Mr. Mazgani graduated summa cum laude and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. While at the University of Southern California Law School, Mr. Mazgani received two American Jurisprudence Awards and served as a member of the Interdisciplinary Law Journal staff.

Employment

Mr. Mazgani is a Senior Counsel with the downtown Los Angeles law firm of Parker, Milliken, Clark, O'Hara & Samuelian, a Professional Corporation. He is a member of the firm's environmental and litigation groups. Mr. Mazgani has continually practiced with Parker, Milliken, Clark, O'Hara & Samuelian since 1998.

Professional Experience

Mr. Mazgani practices in the firm's Environmental Law Department. In that regard, Mr. Mazgani has been involved in numerous cutting-edge civil, criminal and regulatory environmental matters involving soil and groundwater contamination, toxic torts, CERCLA, and a wide array of State and Federal regulatory schemes. Mr. Mazgani regularly appears in both federal and state courts and before a number of environmental regulatory agencies, including the Regional Water Quality Control Boards and the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

Mr. Mazgani's environmental expertise also extends to advising clients on Brownfield developments, the obtainment of no further action letters, notice and disclosure requirements and claims involving the State Underground Storage Tank Fund. Consistent with the firm's Environmental Law Department's practice, Mr. Mazgani represents both private and public agency clients and is currently engaged in high-profile soil and groundwater matters on behalf of local governmental entities.
